

Technical Fest

Mechanical Engineering Department conducts the National level student's technical fest every year in which students from all over India participate. A two day national level student's technical fest provides a platform for sharing knowledge, skills in engineering and technology. Various events will be organized during these two days which includes technical paper presentation, project exhibition, technical quiz, Robowar etc.

